

WANG, Jun

Partner, Attorney at law Senior, patent attorney

Practice Experience:

Mr. Wang is an Attorney-at-Law and Patent Attorney in Intellectual Property Litigation Practice and specializes in intellectual property litigations, involving disputes over patents, trade secrets, technology-related antitrust, and unfair competition.

Mr. Wang started his patent career as a patent examiner in Patent Reexamination Board (PRB) and had been working there for 8 years. Mr. Wang had rich experiences in handling patent cases in the fields of electronic, semiconductor and computer. Mr. Wang joined in King & Wood Mallesons in 2015. Six years in KWM, Mr. Wang was involved in a lot of important patent litigation cases, such as Huawei vs. Samsung, Qualcomm vs. Meizu, Hytera vs. Motorola etc. Mr. Wang specializes in patent cases in the chip and other electric devices field. The deep understanding of the patent law really impressed the clients he provided services.

Mr. Wang also has represented a number of multi-national companies such as Qualcomm, SK hynix, JDI, Toshiba, Nidec and HTC in IP disputes.

Publications/Presentations:

Author, "Differentiation and Analysis on the direct infringement of claims in the multi-subject implementation method", May 2017 Issue, Electronic Intellectual Property

Work Experience:

Lung Tin Law Firm, Partner

King & Wood Mallesons Law Firm, Counsell

Patent Reexamination Board of the State Intellectual Property Office, reexaminer

Education/Trainings:

Bachelor's Degree in Microelectronics, Xi'an Jiaotong University

Master's Degree in Microelectronics, Xi'an Jiaotong University

LL.M., Renmin University of China

Social Activities and Honors:

Recommended expert – Patent Law Committee of Beijing Intellectual Property Law

Research Association

Prominent examiner teacher, State Intellectual Property Office

Working Languages:

Chinese, English